MSRUAS has a good number of full-time faculty members with PhDs and other advanced degrees such as DMs, MChs, DNBs, and super specialties. This ensures that students have access to professors with extensive training and knowledge throughout their academics. As part of public disclosure, the university's website includes a list of its faculty members who have PhDs and other advanced degrees. The list includes the professor's name, years of professional and academic experience, the degree they hold, the university from where they received it, and the year it was conferred. Additionally, the university keeps records of the PhDs, DMs, MChs, DNBs, and super specialties conferred by institutions recognized by the UGC.

MSRUAS has a good track record of hiring qualified fulltime teachers with PhDs and other advanced degrees, the university employs a sizable number of full-time academic members. The university encourages its faculty members to pursue PhD and other professional development opportunities, such as attending conferences and workshops. The university also provides s faculty members with the resources they need to succeed, such as well-equipped laboratories and libraries.
